DON QUIXOTE

2020 MIAMI CITY BALLET GALA

“To dream the impossible dream, that is my quest.”
- Miguel de Cervantes Saavedra, Don Quixote

3.14.20
The value of having performing arts organizations in a community is the self-knowledge and understanding that they provide to society. Nowhere is this more applicable than South Florida’s highly diverse population, where arts communicate across barriers of language, class and culture.

Miami City Ballet is world-renowned, and its School is one of the largest premier training academies in the nation. MCB is both a catalyst for transformation within its local communities through exceptional instruction and community engagement programs, and a brand ambassador for South Florida with performances in more than 100 cities within Europe, Great Britain, South America, Central America and Israel.

The deeply held belief that dance transcends boundaries, changes lives and transforms entire communities is evidenced by the unique impact of the three pillars which propel the organizational mission: Company, Community Engagement and School.
THREE PILLARS

COMPANY

FOUNDED IN 1985 by Miami philanthropist Toby Lerner Ansin and Founding Artistic Director and ballet legend Edward Villella.

A REPERTORY OF 100 BALLETs, including 13 world premieres, was built upon the Balanchine repertory and expanded to include classical works and new choreography by contemporary and ground-breaking artists.

SERVING NEARLY 110,000 PATRONS in South Florida during annual seasons in Miami-Dade, Palm Beach, Broward and Collier Counties.

INTERNATIONAL PRESENCE with 2018/19 touring engagements at Spoleto Dance Festival, South Carolina; Les Etés de la Danse, Paris, France; 75th anniversary celebration of George Balanchine at New York City Center; Harris Theater in Chicago; and the Music Center in LA.

COMMUNITY ENGAGEMENT

FROM THE BEGINNING, MCB has served the community through its dance artistry. Our vision drives a commitment to equity, ensuring access for communities which are systemically disenfranchised.

PROGRAMS HAVE ONE THING IN COMMON - to eliminate barriers to access which create meaningful performances and educational opportunities for people from all walks of life.

20,000 SERVED ANNUALLY through Community Engagement program initiatives that include: scholarships, training, tickets, master classes and workshops for all.

PARTNERSHIP with community partners at the center of our engagement. From Little Havana, Little Haiti, Allapattah, Belle Glade and beyond.

SCHOOL

STARTED IN 1993, the School celebrated its 25th Anniversary in 2018.

TOP-LEVEL TRAINING, OFFERING SCHOLARSHIPS worth more than $525,000 to talented, dedicated students from the U.S. and abroad, regardless of their financial means.

MORE THAN 1,500 STUDENTS from the U.S. and international countries are attracted through audition tours.

14 COUNTRIES have been represented within the student body at MCB School with classes available for students beginning at age three.

500 + ADULTS enjoy various levels of classes through the community division.
MISSION

Miami City Ballet’s mission is to produce and present the highest level of dance performances throughout Florida, the United States and abroad; train young aspiring dancers; and develop Miami City Ballet School into a leader of dance education.

Described by The New York Times as ... one of the greatest [dance] companies ...
Exemplary leadership for a Ballet company, serving as a powerful reflection of the community they serve, Cuban-born Lourdes Lopez, Artistic Director, and Tania Castroverde Moskalenko, Executive Director, are at the helm.

MCB has performed for audiences all over the world, and over the past five years, a consistent touring presence has reached 72,972 patrons nationally and 12,699 patrons internationally. More than 474,000 patrons have enjoyed ballet masterworks and new distinctive pieces performed by the company since 2014.

As a starting point for students and a home for professional dancers, MCB School is one of the largest and most respected dance training programs in the region. National and international audition tours attract more than 1,500 students each season creating a diverse student body. Students are a critical talent-feeder for the professional company.

Ballet Hispánico will honor Miami City Ballet Artistic Director Lourdes Lopez with the Toda Una Vida Lifetime Achievement Award during its May 6th, 2019 Gala at the Plaza Hotel in New York City. Lopez is being honored “for her career as a principal dancer with New York City Ballet, her extraordinary artistic leadership in the classical dance world and for being a cultural ambassador for dance”.

Miami City Ballet is universally admired as one of the world’s pre-eminent interpreters of the choreography of George Balanchine, as most recently evidenced by the company’s invitation to open the historic 75th anniversary celebration of George Balanchine’s cultural home at New York City Center.

MCB’s 2019/20 mainstage season will mark the Company’s 34th year as South Florida’s premier classical ballet company. As part of MCB’s upcoming season, the Company has been invited to participate in the Ballet Across America series at The Kennedy Center in Washington, D.C. in May 2019, in partnership with Dance Theatre of Harlem. The two companies will coalesce for a historic World Premiere by renowned contemporary choreographer Pam Tanowitz, and the overarching engagement will celebrate women’s leadership in ballet.

In 2019, MCB became the first company outside of New York City Ballet to present Brahms/Handel, created by choreographic masters Jerome Robbins and Twyla Tharp.
2020 GALA OVERVIEW

A fiery and colorful evening celebrating a rich cultural heritage

Join Miami City Ballet for a dining and dancing experience inspired by Don Quixote, the titular character in Miguel Cervantes’ classic novel, The Ingenious Nobleman Sir Quixote of La Mancha. The ballet, originally choreographed in 1869 by Marius Petipa, tells the timeless tale of the valiant adventures of Don Quixote and Sancho Panza, and their quest for virtue. Guests will enjoy food, wine, music and dance, immersed in the rich Hispanic culture of the region that has long been recognized as a gateway to Latin America – a bravo to the Ballet!

Miami City Ballet, now in its 34th season, has been led by Artistic Director Lourdes Lopez since 2012. Lopez was most recently selected as an honoree of the 2018 Dance Magazine Awards, which recognizes the outstanding men and women whose contributions have left a lasting impact on dance. This past August, Tania Castroverde Moskalenko joined MCB as its Executive Director. Castroverde Moskalenko returned to Miami after 30 years with a vast experience in performing arts administration and a strong track record of accomplishments.

MCB was founded in 1985 by Miami philanthropist Toby Lerner Ansin and Founding Artistic Director Edward Villella. The Company has 53 dancers and a repertoire of more than 100 ballets. MCB performs for 100,000 plus patrons annually during its South Florida home season in Miami, Fort Lauderdale, West Palm Beach and Naples, and tours to top theaters domestically and internationally.

Miami City Ballet School, the official school of Miami City Ballet, is one of the most respected ballet training academies in America. The School’s renowned faculty, challenging syllabus and affiliation with Miami City Ballet make it a place where all students – from children to adults – can receive comprehensive dance training. The School trains approximately 400 students, ages 3-19, in its year-round program, and 400 during its summer programs, granting more than $525,000 in scholarships annually. Over 500 adults participate in a vibrant community division.

Community engagement programs drive a mission focused on access, partnership, respect and equity. Engagement is a verb at MCB. It is how we do, why we do and for whom we do it. As an organization reflective of its community, our responsibility is steadfast: to ensure access and excellence. Whether the community are elders, formerly incarcerated, differently-abled, newly emigrated, emerging or existing dance artists and families who just want to dance, at the heart of everything Miami City Ballet is centered in the belief in classical ballet’s power to uplift, unite, enchant and transform.
